$1,000,000 WEDDING GIFT.

E. T. Stotesbury Gave It to His Daughter in Addition to $500,000 Jewels.

Special to The New York Times.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—Society had no sooner recovered from its surprise over the showing of wondrous gifts which were presented to Miss Frances Stotesbury on the occasion of her marriage two weeks ago to John K. Mitchell, 3d, than it learned with another gasp that the gift of the bride's father, E. T. Stotesbury, to his daughter was a check for $1,000,000.
It is said that Mr. Stotesbury also presented to the bride a diamond tiara, a necklace of the same jewels, and a string of pearls, the three gifts having cost about $500,000, but that he kept the most astounding money gift until a few hours before the ceremony. Those who know the bride well say it came as a complete surprise to her.

It is said that Mr. Stotesbury gave his other daughter, now Mrs. Sidney Emlen Hutchinson, a similar amount when she was married.

Rescuers Have Trouble in Reaching Them—Some May Be in Tunnel Under the Lake.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Trapped by flames
on a wooden crib, surrounded by water filled with huge cakes of ice, at least fifty-three men perished early to-day.
They had been living on the structure
while engaged in building a section of a tunnel which was to draw pure water from the depths of Lake Michigan.
The crib was built on foundations resting on the bottom of the lake. The successors of the men who were trapped were rescued, and many of these were so badly burned or chilled that they probably will die.

Waters-Pierce Company Fine to Give Work to Texas Clerks.

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 20.—According to the Waters-Pierce Company's Texas representatives and attorneys, the judgment obtained by the State through the Federal Supreme Court will be paid in silver dollars and delivered at the State Treasury.
The award and interest call for nearly $2,000,000 and the counting will require much labor. Six extra clerks will be required to count the money.

PROHIBITION WINS AGAIN.

Holladay Bill Passed Over Governor's Veto by Tennessee Legislature.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 20.—The Holladay State-wide prohibition bill was passed over Gov. Patterson's veto in both houses of the Legislature to-day. The vote in the Senate was 20 to 13, and in the House 61 to 30.

An enthusiastic demonstration took place in each house when the vote was announced.
Special to The New York Times.
ASHESVILLE, N. C., Jan. 20.—At the request of a majority of the Legislature, which is favorable to prohibition, the legal advisers of the anti-saloon league have drafted a bill providing for a tax of $1 a gallon on all liquor brought into the State and forbidding transportation companies from delivering liquor until such tax is paid. Charters of clubs dispensing liquor to members are to be forfeited, and the possession of more than a gallon of alcoholic liquor by any person selling soft drinks is to be presumptive evidence that he sells liquor.

NEW TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

Plans for an Independent Line from Boston to Omaha.

Special to The New York Times.
BOSTON, Jan. 20.—It is stated, with authority, that the independent telephone system is to be brought to the independence of the Conference of Independent Telephone Companies
next Saturday.
This is the final step in the construction of an independent distance telephone system
between Boston and Omaha, Neb.
It will involve an expenditure of $5,000,000, and a profit of probably $30,000,000 within the next four years.

At the head of the enterprise are Max
Koehler, the foremost independent telephone man in the country, and H. C. Stil-well of St. Louis, representing large independent interests in the Middle West. The financial end of the undertaking, it is said, has been provided for. It remains only to work out the construction and operating details.

The matter has been under way since last May, and an enormous amount of preliminary work has already been accomplished. All the principal independent companies of the country are directly interested in the enterprise, and their officers are working in co-operation with Messrs. Koehler and Stilwell.

JENKINS WIN AGAIN.

Justice Scudder Grants Change of Venue in Bank Conspiracy Case.

Supreme Court Justice Scudder in Brooklyn yesterday decided that the conspiracy case against John G. Jenkins, Jr., Frank Jenkins, and Frederick Jenkins will have to be tried somewhere out of Kings County.

The Jenkinses were indicted on a charge involving the use of the funds of the Jenkins and Williams Trust Companies. Asserting that they could not obtain a fair trial in Kings County, Justice
Scudder granted the change of venue.

In denying the application Justice Scudder said that the suggestion that the District Attorney would lose control of the prosecution by the change of venue was more technical than real. The other indictments will be tried in Kings County.

My Dear Mr. Hammerstein, Afternoon, when you told me that you were to engage Miss Cavalleri to sing "Thais."
I said to you that the day this announcement was advertised in the newspapers I would leave the Manhattan Opera House.
This morning the published announcement appeared, and accordingly I hereby send you my resignation. MARY GARDEN.
Jan. 20, 1909.

As soon as Mr. Hammerstein received Miss Garden's letter he issued this statement:
In relation to the engagement of Miss
Cavalleri to sing "Thais" at the Massenet Opera House, I am sorry to hear that she has decided to leave the opera house.

Mr. Hammerstein then issued this statement: Miss Cavalleri has decided to

$1,000,000 WEDDING GIFT.

E. T. Stotesbury Gave It to His Daughter in Addition to $500,000 Jewels.

Special to The New York Times.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—Society had no sooner recovered from its surprise over the showing of wondrous gifts which were presented to Miss Frances Stotesbury on the occasion of her marriage two weeks ago to John K. Mitchell, 3d, than it learned with another gasp that the gift of the bride's father, E. T. Stotesbury, to his daughter was a check for $1,000,000. It is said that Mr. Stotesbury also presented to the bride a diamond tiara, a necklace of the same jewels, and a string of pearls, the three gifts having cost about $500,000, but that he kept the most astounding money gift until a few hours before the ceremony. Those who know the bride well say it came as a complete surprise to her.

It is said that Mr. Stotesbury gave his other daughter, now Mrs. Sidney Emilen Hutchinson, a similar amount when she was married.

Rescuers Have Trouble in Reaching Them—Some May Be in Tunnel Under the Lake.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Trapped by flames on a wooden crib, surrounded by water filled with huge cakes of ice, at least fifty-three men perished early to-day. They had been living on the structure while engaged in building a section of a tunnel which was to draw pure water for Chicago from the depths of Lake Michigan. The crib was built on foundations resting on the bottom of the lake. The structure was a board building of two stories. It was surrounded by a narrow pier or pier. Under it a shaft of concrete and concrete about twenty feet in diameter ran down 100 feet to the bottom of the lake. A tramway, consisting of steel cables on which huge buckets traveled, gave connection with the pier for the transfer of supplies and men.

Little heed paid to explosion. The crib was built on foundations resting on the bottom of the lake. The structure was a board building of two stories. It was surrounded by a narrow pier or pier. Under it a shaft of concrete and concrete about twenty feet in diameter ran down 100 feet to the bottom of the lake. A tramway, consisting of steel cables on which huge buckets traveled, gave connection with the pier for the transfer of supplies and men.

By the time the Morford had started on the rescue trip three other tugs were on the way to the crib. The fireboats Conway and Illinois quickly followed, and the seven additional tugs were on the way to the crib. PROHIBITION WINS AGAIN.

Holladay Bill Passed Over Governor's Veto by Tennessee Legislature.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 20.—The Holladay State-wide prohibition bill was passed over Gov. Patterson's veto in both houses of the Legislature to-day. The vote in the Senate was 20 to 13, and in the House 61 to 30.

An enthusiastic demonstration took place in each house when the vote was announced.

Special to The New York Times.
ASHVILLE, N. C., Jan. 20.—At the request of a majority of the Legislature, which is favorable to prohibition, the legal advisers of the anti-saloon league have drafted a bill providing for a tax of $1 a gallon on all liquor brought into the State and forbidding transportation companies from delivering liquor until such tax is paid. Charters of clubs dispensing liquor to members are to be forfeited, and the possession of more than a gallon of alcoholic liquor by any person selling soft drinks is to be presumptive evidence that he sells liquor.

NEW TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

Plans for an Independent Line from Boston to Omaha.

Special to The New York Times.
BOSTON, Jan. 20.—It is stated, with authority, that the plan to bring to the conference of the independent telephone companies next Saturday in New York the final adoption of an independent telephone system from Boston to Omaha, Neb., is a possibility. It will involve an expenditure of $5,000,000, and a dividend of probably $30,000,000 within the next four years.

At the head of the enterprise are Max Koehler, the foremost independent telephone man in the country, and H. C. Stifel of St. Louis, representing large independent interests in the Middle West. The financial end of the undertaking, it is said, has been provided for. It remains only to work out the construction and operating details.

The matter has been under way since last May, and an enormous amount of preliminary work has already been accomplished. All the principal independent companies of the country are directly interested in the enterprise, and their officers are working in co-operation with Messrs. Koehler and Stifel.

JENKINS WIN AGAIN.

Justice Scudder Grants Change of Venue in Bank Conspiracy Case.

Supreme Court Justice Scudder in Brooklyn yesterday decided that the conspiracy case against John G. Jenkins, Jr., Frank Jenkins, and Frederick Jenkins will have to be tried somewhere out of Kings County.

The Jenkinses were indicted on a charge involving the use of the funds of the Jenkins and Williams Trust Companies. Asserting that they could not obtain a fair trial in Kings County, Justice Scudder granted the change of venue.

In denying the application Justice Scudder said that the suggestion that the District Attorney would lose control of the prosecution by the change of venue was more technical than real. The other indictments will be tried in Kings County.

Scudder to reconsider his decision. In denying the application Justice Scudder said that the suggestion that the District Attorney would lose control of the prosecution by the change of venue was more technical than real. The other indictments will be tried in Kings County.

PIZZERIA • KONOB

At the head of the enterprise are Max Koehler, the foremost independent telephone man in the country, and H. C. Stifel of St. Louis, representing large independent interests in the Middle West. The financial end of the undertaking, it is said, has been provided for. It remains only to work out the construction and operating details.

The matter has been under way since last May, and an enormous amount of preliminary work has already been accomplished. All the principal independent companies of the country are directly interested in the enterprise, and their officers are working in co-operation with Messrs. Koehler and Stifel.

Justice Scudder Grants Change of Venue in Bank Conspiracy Case.

Supreme Court Justice Scudder in Brooklyn yesterday decided that the conspiracy case against John G. Jenkins, Jr., Frank Jenkins, and Frederick Jenkins will have to be tried somewhere out of Kings County.

The Jenkinses were indicted on a charge involving the use of the funds of the Jenkins and Williams Trust Companies. Asserting that they could not obtain a fair trial in Kings County, Justice Scudder granted the change of venue.

WATERS AROUND THEM

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Trapped by flames on a wooden crib, surrounded by water filled with huge cakes of ice, at least fifty-three men perished early to-day.

They had been living on the structure while engaged in building a section of a tunnel which was to draw pure water for Chicago from the depths of Lake Michigan. The crib was built on foundations resting on the bottom of the lake. The structure was a board building of two stories. It was surrounded by a narrow pier or pier. Under it a shaft of concrete and concrete about twenty feet in diameter ran down 100 feet to the bottom of the lake.

A tramway, consisting of steel cables on which huge buckets traveled, gave connection with the pier for the transfer of supplies and men. Little heed paid to explosion. By the time the Morford had started on the rescue trip three other tugs were on the way to the crib. The fireboats Conway and Illinois quickly followed, and the seven additional tugs were on the way to the crib.
